

“FROM VILLAGE ROOTS TO BOLLYWOOD DREAMS: THE JOURNEY OF ROSHAN MAVASKAR”

My name is Roshan Mavaskar, born in 2002 in the village of Jampani, located in Sawalikheda, Ta. Dharni, District Amravati, Maharashtra. I am passionate about dance and acting, with a strong aspiration to establish a career in the Bollywood industry. Although I am self-taught, I have developed skills in dance, action, acting, and martial arts, with dance being my primary passion.

I have participated in a reality show and have had the opportunity to perform at various events. My first audition took place in Dehradun, Uttarakhand, where I was selected, and I later performed at an event there. My journey also took me to Mumbai, where I continued to hone my skills. These experiences culminated in my first television appearance, for which I received a certificate and a medal, marking my initial recognition in the industry.

My ultimate goal is to achieve significant success in Bollywood, allowing me to give back to society by helping the underprivileged. I am also an avid traveler, having embarked on my first significant journey to Dehradun for a dance audition, which set the foundation for my career. My ambition is to continue growing in my craft and making a meaningful impact both in the industry and beyond.
